NUMB. 437.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From MONDAY Auguſt 2, to MONDAY Auguſt 9, 1742.

CHARLES-TOWN, Auguſt 9.

ON Monday laſt the Swift Man of War Capt. Bladwell, came into Harbour, in order we hear to repair ſome Damage receiv'd in her Boltſprit; which Service was effected by Friday.

On Tueſday his Honour the Lieutenant Governor returned here from the Southern Parts of this Province; when, we hear, That His Honour having approved of the Proceedings of His Majeſty's Council in his Abſence, immediately ordered the Veſſels fitted out for the Relief of Georgia, and which had return'd here purſuant to Capt. HARDY's Orders, to take on board the neceſſary Supplies of Proviſions, &c. and to fall down into Rebellion-Road, in order to proceed to Sea again.

The ſame Day Capt. Thomas Frankland in his Majeſty's Ship the Roſe arrived here, with a Dutch Snow Prize, and a fine Spaniſh Privateer Sloop, Bermudas built, with 12 Carriage and 14 Swivel Guns, and 80 Hands. She was fitted out of Barraſoa, is eſteemed the beſt Sailor that has been out during this War, and had taken a great many Engliſh Veſſels.

When Capt. Frankland was coming up he was ſaluted by the 4 Veſſels (one after another) which were fitted out by this Government againſt the Spaniards, and ordered back by Capt. Hardy; which Salute having been return'd by Capt. Frankland, he was next cheer'd from on board ſeveral Veſſels lying before the Town, as he paſſed by them, which was alſo returned by the Roſe's Men. Then, a great Number of the Inhabitants being upon the ſeveral Wharfs, thoſe upon Rhett's firſt gave him Three Huzza's, and thoſe upon the other Wharfs did the ſame one after another; which Compliment Capt. Frankland returned with his Guns. As this Manner of his Reception here was ſudden, unpremeditated, and not concerted, but only the voluntary, natural and chearful Expreſſion of the Heart, it gives us an Opportunity to requeſt ſome others to look into Themſelves, and conſider, Whether it be not poſſible to account for the different Regard which They complain to have met with from the Generality of the People? Whether it is becauſe the People are SCRUBS and SCOUNDRELS, and not capable of diſtinguiſhing Merit? Or, Becauſe they can diſtinguiſh it, and cannot be brought to ſhew Reſpect to any but ſuch as appear to them to deſerve it? Thoſe Gentlemen may deſpiſe as much as they pleaſe the Cenſure of ſo mean a Thing as the Publick, but let them do ſomething to obtain it, and ſee if they can deſpiſe ſuch their Applauſe.

We hear, That Capt. Frankland having acquainted His Honour the Lieutenant Governor and His Majeſty's Council, that he was come here upon their Advice of the Invaſion of the Spaniards, and that he was ready to proceed to Sea again, in order to endeavour to effect any Service which they thought might be effected at this Juncture; all the Veſſels belonging to this Government were accordingly put under his Command, as Commodore of all His Majeſty's Ships now in theſe Parts; and they are to ſail To-morrow or next Day.

The Rye and Hawk Men of War, we hear, left the Bar laſt Wedneſday, and ſailed Southerly. And, on Friday the Flamborough came into Rebellion-Road by Capt. Frankland's Order, as we are inform'd, in order to compleat what ſhe wanted; it not being judged prudent by him, in the Condition ſhe was in that ſhe ſhould lie without, expoſed to the Accident of being forced to put to Sea.

We hear alſo, That when Capt. Hardy firſt ſail'd for St. Simon's, he met with a Rhode-Iſland Privateer, commanded by one Captain Allen, who ſaid he had met with a Spaniſh 40-Gun Ship near this Coaſt, with which he exchanged a great many Shot.

By an Expreſs which paſſed lately this way from Maryland, to General Oglethorpe, we had Information, That a Deſign had been diſcovered there, of one of the Five Nations of Indians breaking out War with them on a fixed Day; and that they had built a large Fort preparatory thereto in a great Swamp, where they they had lodged Provisions, &c. and that they intended to destroy Philadelphia, &c.

This Day the Rose and Swift Men of War sail down to Rebellion-Road.

Whereas GEORGE SAXBY, Esq; hath lately obtained a Warrant under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manuel, appointing him Receiver General of all Quit Rents, Fines and Forfeitures in this Province; I do hereby give Notice, That I have no farther Business or Power to receive the same, and all Payments thereon for the future are to be paid to him the said George Saxby.

JOHN HAMMERTON.

I GIVE this publick Notice to all Persons who have any Quit Rents to pay, That I am the only Person to receive the same; His Majesty having by a Warrant under his Royal Sign Manuel appointed me Receiver General of this Province; And it is expected no Person will be so backward in paying their said Rents as they have been, for I am determined to collect them according to the Quit Rent Law; so all those who do not very soon come and settle their said Rents must expect no Favour, for it is what must be paid every Year; and if neglected for Three Months after the 25th of March every Year, such Defaulters may depend on Executions being granted against them; although I know it is the Opinion of some, That they are to pay only every Three Years, and some others there are, who never enter Memorials of their Land when sold, who must be obliged to pay Quit-Rent for the same 'till it is entered in the Auditor's Office, for whose better Guidance I have here inserted part of the 9th and the 12th Paragraph of the Quit-Rent Law, and I hope no Person will plead Ignorance thereof for the future, for I am determined to grant Executions against all those who do not pay very soon after this Advertisement, the Time being now expired; For, by Experience I find, Indulgence makes People worse; so hope no Persons whatsoever will think themselves ill used if they find me as good as my Promise, which I assure them I will do; for it cannot be expected that I must ask every one for his Quit-Rents; neither must they ever expect another Advertisement after this, as it is here mentioned to be paid every 25th of March, according to the following Paragraphs of the Quit Rent Law; for as I received very particular Orders about the Quit-Rents, if they are not paid it shall be my Fault. And as to those residing in Craven County, I'll give my Attendance on them at George Town, the first Day of January next, and stay Twenty Days, at which Time I hope they will meet me and pay their Quit Rents then due, or they must expect the same Fate; for I am determined not to leave the County 'till I get in the Rents.

GEORGE SAXBY.

Here follows Part of the 9th and the 12th Paragraph of the Quit-Rent Law.

9th. ' —— BE it further Enacted by the Authority ' aforesaid, That if any of the Quit Rents whatsoever, that ' shall become due to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, ' from and after the Passing of this Act, out of any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whatsoever, ' within this Province, shall happen to be behind and unpaid by the Space of Three Months next over or after ' the said 25th of March, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by ' his and their Officers, Ministers and Bailiffs, appointed ' or to be appointed, and duely sworn for that Purpose, into all or any Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, respectively whatsoever, to enter and make reasonable Distress ' upon the Goods and Chattels of the Owners, in whatsoever Part of the Province the same can be found, nearest to Charles-Town.

12th. ' AND be it further Enacted by the Authority ' aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoever, possessed of any Messuages, Lands or Tenements in ' this Province, after having registered their Patents, Grants ' or Deeds, or Memorial thereof, or Memorials of the last ' Will or Probate thereof, in the Office of his Majesty's ' Auditor or Deputy as aforesaid, shall sell or dispose of ' such Messuages, Lands or Tenements, or any part thereof, he shall cause a new Memorial to be made of the ' Indenture, or Deed, by which the said Messuages, Lands ' or Tenements, are so disposed of, (Town Lots excepted) ' to be exhibited and filed with his Majesty's Auditor, or ' his Deputy, and if devised away by Will, then the Devisee, Executors or Administrators, shall exhibit a Memorial of such Will, that is to say, the Testator and ' Devisee's Names, the Date of the Will, and the Clause ' of such Will whereby the same is devised away, & then ' and from thenceforth upon Payment of all Arrears then ' due, the Persons only to whom such Messuages, Lands ' or Tenements are conveyed over or devised, shall stand ' chargeable only with the Payment of the Quit Rents ' from thenceforth to grow due, out of such Messuages, ' Lands or Tenements, and in case only part thereof be ' conveyed away or devited, then upon exhibiting a Memorial in Manner as aforesaid, and paying all Arrears ' of Quit Rents then due, the said Auditor or his Deputy, is hereby required to apportion the Rents accordingly, and to charge the same on such new Purchaser or Devisee, paying the usual Fees as aforesaid. '

Lately imported in the Ship Samuel, William Warden from London, and now to be sold at reasonable Rates by the Subscriber at his Store in Tradd street; a large Assortment of dry Goods, adapted for this and the ensuing Season, together with great variety of choice Pickles in Cases.

Jermiah Colly.

Mr. Timothy,

THAT John Dutarque about Two Years paſt, or at any other Time, came to the Houſe of Benjamin Singletary when he was in a high, or any Fever, but that of Anger or Paſſion or offered him a certain Paper to ſign, and upon his Refuſal gave him bad Language and declared he would ruin him; as is alledged by an Advertiſement in your Paper No 431, IS ABSOLUTELY FALSE: But that the ſaid John Dutarque did, (upon Benjamin Singletary's claiming a Right to Two Negroes, under a pretended Deed of Gift, to his Wife's Mother, which the ſaid Dutarque had bought at a publick Sale in the Preſence of the ſaid Singletary, and which Sale he did not forbid;) expreſs ſome Suſpicions that the Deed of Gift was not genuine, if true. And whether ſuch Suſpicion was without Foundation let the World judge, when it is known that the ſaid Singletary, after having, as is alledged been poſſeſſed of ſuch Deed for upwards of Two Years, has ſuffered the ſaid Dutarque to remain in Poſſeſſion of the Negroes ſaid to be given by ſuch Deed, without daring to make uſe of it to recover them from him. Whether the Deed is, or is not a Forgery Mr. Dutarque does not ſay, becauſe in Truth he could never obtain a Sight of what is called the Original Deed, but if it be a genuine one, he challenges 'em to attempt a Proof of it in a Court of Juſtice; where he conceives there could be no great Difficulty to eſtabliſh the Validity of it, if it be genuine, either by producing the Witneſſes to it, or, if they are dead, or gone to Places remote, beyond the Seas, and unknown to the Advertiſer, by producing ſome creditable Perſons who knew the Witneſſes and their Hand writing: And 'till this or ſomething of this ſort is done Mr. Dutarque's Suſpicions concerning this Matter will remain, let, what is called the Original Deed be in whoſe Hands ſoever it may.

John Dutarque.
